COURSE OVERVIEW: This two-day course is intended to train K–12 school staff and administrators on best practices for developing Behavioral Intervention Teams (BITs), conducting threat and risk assessments, active shooter response and K–12 reunification. Participants will learn best practices as they relate to threats, pre-attack indicators (red flags), and the pathway to violence. In addition, participants will learn the importance of developing a sound foundation for Behavioral Intervention Teams including creating a multidisciplinary team made up of your organization’s key players.

TARGET AUDIENCE: County and District Administrators, K–12 Administrators and Staff, Perspective Team Members, and Law Enforcement.

KEY CONTENT: This course provides educators with the training and resources to effectively assess campus threats and create a BIT.
